DPRs of all the constituent link projects. As of now, the stage has not come for the financial planning of the ILR project which would be considered by the Government at appropriate time. The time for implementation of ILR programme depends upon the consensus & cooperation of the States.

Irrigation schemes for Punjab and Maharashtra

1619. SHRI DARA SINGH: Will the Minister of WATER RESOURCES be pleased to state:

(a) the details of irrigation schemes approved for Punjab and Maharashtra;

(b) the details of funds sanctioned/released by Centre to each State Government separately, during the last three years, scheme-wise, till date; and

(c) the number of schemes completed within scheduled time limit and the number of schemes which are still pending, State-wise?

THE MINISTER OF WATER RESOURCES (PROF. SAIF-UD-DIN SOZ): (a) The Planning Commission has accorded investment clearance to one major irrigation project of Punjab and eight of Maharashtra (1 major and 7 medium) during the Tenth Five Year Plan. The details of these irrigation projects are at Statement-I. (See below)

(b) The Central Government launched the Accelerated Irrigation Benefits Programme (AIBP) in 1996-97 to provide Central Loan Assistance to States including Punjab and Maharashtra for such approved irrigation projects which are in an advanced stage of construction and beyond the resources capability of the States that can be completed in the next four financial years. The details of Central Loan Assistance/grant released to the States of Punjab and Maharashtra during the last three years, project-wise, till-date, are at Statement-ll. (See below)

(c) In Maharashtra, 8 projects out of 30 major/medium irrigation projects (including 2 inter-State projects) receiving Central Loan Assistance/grant under AIBP have been reported as completed and the remaining 22 projects are in progress. Among the completed projects in Maharashtra, 6 projects were completed as per schedule. In Punjab, one project out of five major/medium irrigation projects receiving Central Loan Assistance/ grant under AIBP has been reported as completed within scheduled time limit and the remaining 4 are in progress.
